

Water, Water, Everywhere

an astrology weekend in Brisbane with

Melanie Reinhart

hosted by Babula Clement

February 4th 2012 is the date that Neptune enters Pisces!
We celebrate with a weekend dedicated to the healing waters of Pisces.

During this workshop, we explore in depth the water element in the horoscope, through consideration of the ongoing conjunction of Chiron and Neptune in Pisces. Additionally material on the TNO called 'Orcus' will be offered. It is currently located in early Virgo, opposite Chiron 7 times, and Neptune 9 times. Their inter-aspects represent one of the defining signatures of our times, being within orb from 2007–2016.

Like the two fishes of Pisces, each day may be attended separately, or both together as one experience.

Saturday - Feb 4th Islands in the Water

The symbolic meaning of the astrological material will be contemplated, through astronomy, myth and image. The water element – Chiron – Neptune – Orcus. Our reflective and intuitive connections with the information are like 'islands' in the watery terrain of Pisces.

Sunday - Feb 5th Immersion

A day of experiential and contemplative work. We focus on our own individual horoscopes, working with dreams, guided imagery, poetry, music and whatever washes in on the tide of the day...
